Verse of the Week

HE BECAME ONE OF US

"The Word became flesh and lived among us . . ." John 1:14

Henri Nouwen says, "Community is the place where the person you least want to live with, always lives." Here's one woman's story: "As a Sociology student, one of my class assignments was to smile at people and then document their reactions. That weekend my husband and I went out for breakfast and were in line waiting to be served. Suddenly everybody around me began to back away - even my husband! As I turned to investigate, a body odor enveloped me and I encountered a homeless man, his blue eyes searching mine for acceptance. Because he'd come inside to get warm he had to buy something, so he ordered coffee. It was all he could afford. Then I noticed other people watching my reaction. I thought, 'What now, Lord?' So I smiled and ordered him a sandwich. As he thanked me and squeezed my hand, I realized I was learning an important lesson. By sharing what I had with this man, I was practicing unconditional love and acceptance."

God says, "Suppose a brother . . . is without clothes and . . . food. If one of you says . . . 'I wish you well; keep warm and well fed.' But does nothing . . . what good is it? . . . faith . . . not accompanied by action, is dead" (James 2:15-17 NIV). When are we going to learn that true holiness doesn't isolate us from a hurting world, it insulates us, enabling us to mix freely with them and become a solution to their problem. Could that be what John meant when he said, "The Word became flesh and lived among us . . .?"
